

Winter Training 22/23

November 12 - Tidal Heights Theory Session*

November 19 - RYA VHF Course

November 20 - Tidal Streams Theory Session*

November 20 - RYA Radar Course

November 27 - Pilotage Theory Session*

December 10-11 - RYA Essential Navigation and Seamanship

January 7 - RYA VHF Course

January 8 - RYA First Aid Course

January 14 - VHF Practice Theory Session*

RYA Day Skipper Theory Course

January 28-29

February 4-5

February 11-12

March 18 - Planning a Cruise Theory Session*

To book on to courses call the office on

01243 512 918

If you would be interested in any other training please let us know!
For all sessions please bring a pencil, notepad and rubber
Details and pricing overleaf

RYA Essential Navigation and Seamanship

Members £140, Non-members £175

Aimed at providing a basic knowledge of navigation and safety, this 2-day course is ideal for all water users and covers charts, safety, tidal awareness, navigation, pilotage and much more.

RYA Day Skipper Theory

Members £400, Non-members £500

Run over 3 weekends, this course aims to provide sufficient knowledge to enable navigation around familiar tidal and non tidal waters by day and is ideal for aspiring skippers or those with crewing experience.

RYA First Aid Course

Members £110, Non-members £130

This course will provide you with a basic knowledge of First Aid and is aimed at people who will be using small craft inland or at sea. The course is equally suitable for cruisers, racers, dinghy sailors, windsurfers, motor boaters and ocean rowers.

RYA Radar Course

Members £110, Non-members £130

Using a Radar simulator this course teaches you how to adjust the controls, interpret the picture and use radar for navigation and collision avoidance.

RYA VHF Course

Members £110, Non-members £130

This one-day course covers the use of a VHF radio, including Digital Selective Calling (DSC). The course also includes an exam to give you the Short Range Certificate (SRC) for which there is a £60 exam fee payable to the RYA.

Shore based Club Training*

Members £25

Covering a variety of topics, these sessions are ideal to brush up on skills and new techniques as well as an introduction to different aspects of crewing and helming.

Refreshments, including tea and coffee are included in the price